VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY, MARCH 9, 1868. NO. 180.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

REV. HENRY WARD BEECHER AND GENERAL LEE.

The speech of Henry Ward Beecher, at Cooper Institute, on Monday night, in behalf of the Washington College, Virginia, was a production remarkable as much for its kindly spirit as for its novelty, at a time when the party, of which the speaker is supposed to be a shining light, is dealing in stupidity, malice and all uncharitableness at Washington. The first resolution introduced by Beecher, for example, reads "that it is at once the duty and the privilege of those who maintained the unity of this nation by war to be foremost in time of peace in all works of love which tend to make the American people one in sentiment as well as in government." How does that harmonize with the action of the Reconstruction Committee and Congress, whose "works of love" are so beautifully demonstrated in the Southern States through military rule and negro supremacy?

But General Robert E. Lee is President of Washington College; and how does Beecher speak of him? He says:—"I plead this cause because General Lee is President of it. No man more than I regretted his decision; but knowing how human nature runs I cannot say I was surprised, though grieved. I do not know that if I had been born and bred in the South, but what I should have done the same thing. But for Divine Providence he would have stood in New York and been at the City Hall dictating terms to the people of the North.—He failed. But General Lee stands in New York to-night, not with his sword dictating terms, but as a scholar, holding out the hand of peace and saying to us, "Give me bread for my scholars; give me books for my scholars." And Beecher pleads earnestly that Lee should have bread and books, not as a matter of charity, but in the form of justice, mingled a little, perhaps, with selfishness, or, as he calls it, self-preservation; for he argues that by fostering education in the Southern States we confer a benefit upon the North. However, it is an admission worth obtaining just at this moment—when persecution, not unmixed with folly, is so rampant—that the South is not an outcast and absolutely disinherited; that she is still a part of the country, and has interests in common with us all.—N. Y. Herald.

[Dispatch to the Baltimore Gazette.]

IMPEACHMENT PRESENTATION IN THE SENATE—HOW SOME OF THE ACTORS LOOKED AND ACTED.

"Among the managers, Wilson alone seemed to appreciate the dignity and importance of the occasion. Stevens, after standing a few moments, had to be seated to avoid falling, which might have tended to render the play more tragic. The old man had been brought from the House in his chair, the parties carrying him stopping in the passage way to rest. Stevens said to them, "Boys, what in the h—ll shall I do, when you are all dead, for some one to carry me?" But to the Senate: Logan folded his arms in stage style, stretched out his legs and threw back his raven locks, as much as to say, right or wrong, I'll see it through. Butler looked as if he was presiding at his own funeral. He is strongly suspected of a purpose to defeat Grant by killing his party. Hence his colleagues watched him closely to-day, and his nervous clutching of a dilapidated hat, the twitching of the corners of his mouth and bowed head, were interpreted to mean treachery to the Radicals. In the meantime, Speaker Colfax had been overlooked in the scramble for executive power. But Senator Hendricks, seeing the situation, came to the rescue of the Speaker, and suggested to Wade the propriety of inviting him to a seat beside himself, and this was done. General Banks modestly deposited himself in one of the rear seats, with his feet upon the desk in front. Ashley and others disposed of themselves as best they could, and enjoyed all the proceedings but the reading of the unfortunate tenth article. The galleries were crowded almost to suffocation, and all appeared relieved when this, the first act in this disgraceful farce, had closed, and the managers retired, followed by the members, to the Hall of Representatives. The communication of Chief Justice Chase to the Senate is in admirable tone; but Senator Howard and others, to-day, pronounced it a piece of intermeddling effrontery. The Radicals are particularly annoyed, and profess to think there is not much in it. But Mr. Chase's friends say this communication is but the softened tones of a distant thunder which betokens a storm. The Chief Justice has a head of his own, and those who know him anticipate trouble. The rebuke he so delicately administers to Wade is a perfect gem.—Wade has voted on all the preliminary questions, including the rules for the trial, and the Chief Justice says it was thought prudent and befitting that the next in succession should not preside, much less vote, in a proceeding through which a vacancy might be created. It is understood, however, that Wade will insist on his right to vote, and will place his indelicate action on the novel ground that his vote may become necessary to convict, or, in plainer words, he may fail to get into the Presidential Chair unless he votes himself into it. Whether he will be allowed the privilege of this luxury remains to be seen."

OLD BEN WADE.—What a hardened reprobate old Ben Wade must be! Heactually hall the effrontery to offer himself as a juror, or judge, in the case of Mr. Johnson. We have not yet heard whether he is likely to get a chance to vote to give himself twenty-five thousand a year and the patronage of the Executive office; but we can truly say that the Radicals cannot surprise us by any act, however disgraceful. As we remarked several days ago, Mr. Wade, although not included in the language of that provision of the Constitution which forbids the Vice-President from acting in such a case, is nevertheless embraced within its intent and meaning. No man of refined feelings—no one with the instincts of a gentleman—would dream of sitting upon a case under such circumstances.—Rich. Dispatch.

Cannot somebody be induced to relieve the Secretary of War, and keep guard for him against the innumerable foes that threaten the War Department? His "sleepless vigilance," it is to be feared, will involve the country in the horrible catastrophe of losing his invaluable services.—Wash. Express.

The Cheraw, S. C., Advertiser calls Holden a "double-dyed traitor." Why not make it double-dead, at once?—Wilmington Star.

The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U. S. Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. "In other words the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made, from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10 As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value $500) five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864." A safe Counsellor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11 It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX, that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13 Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14 Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no deb or will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness, in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

EDUCATIONAL.

Kittrell's Springs Female College.

GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here, and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar are of the finest quality.

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

Terms MODERATE and SOUND ROSATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is got up and sold at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the South. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

MR. WILLIAMS, OF SAMPSON.—This gentleman, having been released from the disreputable company which he has been obliged to keep, for some time past, has gone home to the more congenial company of the white men of his county. Mr. Williams, while in the so-called Convention, stood up manfully, with the small band of Conservatives in that body, in vindication of the honor of North Carolina and the assailed rights of the white men of the State.

No act of the mongrel Convention has been more infamous than the ejection of Mr. Williams. In the face of law and evidence, with indecent haste, and without summoning Mr. W. before the Committee, or giving him an opportunity of producing evidence in behalf of himself or his people, he was removed to make way for a Radical, who had not the slightest claim to a seat. We have heard of more than one Radical member of the so-called Convention confessing that the proceeding was a great outrage.

And yet Daddy Cowles, who has not even registered, presides over the body, and several other Radical members are receiving $8 per day, who are expressly debarred by the Reconstruction Acts, and who have no more right to sit in the "Convention" than the King of Dahomey!

GRAND RALLY AT LENOIR.—We are gratified to learn that the Conservatives of Caldwell county had an enthusiastic rally, at Lenoir, a few nights since. There was a very large crowd in attendance, and the Hons. A. S. Merrimon, Jno. Kerr and R. Y. McAden made able and effective speeches. The finest spirit prevails in Caldwell, and the Radicals will hardly make a black mark in that noble little county.

DOWN WITH THE MONGREL CONSTITUTION! That is the slogan.

WHO IS "THE PUBLIC LIAR?"

A friend has handed us the following from the Standard of Friday last. Let the reader look at it. W. W. Holden on last Friday says:

"Mr. Pell was laborious in his habits, and took pride in getting out a good newspaper. It was his habit to prepare each week a column of items of various kinds for the Weekly Standard. These items did not appear in the Semi-Weekly Standard. The writer of this, the Senior Editor, seldom saw or examined the Weekly paper, as it was made up and printed from the matter which appeared in the Semi-Weekly.

* * * * * * *

Mr. Pell denies in the Sentinel that he selected this item for the Weekly Standard."

Yes, we repeat the denial, and charge directly that W. W. Holden wrote the item himself for the Semi-Weekly Standard.

We have before us the Semi-Weekly Standard, dated June 5th, 1861. We have it in our office, to be seen by every one. In that very Semi-Weekly, in the leading editorial column and the first article in that column, appears an article headed "The Latest News," editorial news items, prepared by W. W. Holden himself, from the last mail received before the Semi-Weekly went to press. The last article in the list, all of which are editorialized and prepared by Holden himself, is the following:

"IT IS SAID A PLOT HAS BEEN FORMED IN WASHINGTON TO MASSACRE JEFFERSON DAVIS, WHO WILL PLOT FOR THE HEADS OF ABE LINCOLN AND GEN. SCOTT!"

Now, if the above paragraph, and its sentiments, were not prepared and approved by Holden himself, why did he not correct it in the next issue of the Semi-Weekly? The Senior Editor of the Sentinel did not put the paragraph either in the Semi-Weekly or Weekly Standard. W. W. Holden put it in the Semi Weekly himself, and the foreman of the office, who made up the form, arranged the matter of the Semi-Weekly for the Weekly. If W. W. Holden did not do it and did not approve it, why did he not call the attention of Mr. Pell to it and have it corrected? Why did he not correct it in the next issue, the next week, the next month, or the next year? Why did he not correct it in 1862, '63 and '64? The truth is, W. W. Holden did it himself. It then expressed his sentiments and feelings, and he so told a friend several times about the time it appeared. He said it was the smartest thing he had said—it would put him square with the war men. He never once intimated to his friend that Mr. Pell had done this smart thing; but took all the glory to himself. His friend told him then, if it was smart, it was imprudent. We say we can prove this. But we may not do it, until we think we can find a jury to say that Holden has damaged us by his libellous attack.

MONGREL RADICALISM.

Our telegraphic dispatches, on Saturday, announced the main features of the Suffrage Act just adopted by the hybrid Convention in Virginia. It disfranchises very nearly every white man in the old Mother of States. It provides that every man, who gave any aid and encouragement to the so-called rebellion, shall be debarred from voting; and it was expressly enacted that voting at the polls in favor of the ordinance of secession, which was submitted by the Convention of 1861 to the people of that State, constituted the specified "aid and comfort." When, therefore, it is remembered that the ordinance was ratified by nearly the unanimous vote of the people, it will be seen that suffrage in Virginia—the land of Washington, Henry, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Jackson and Lee,—is to be almost exclusively committed to negroes, however ignorant or degraded. Men who cannot vote, cannot, of course, hold office; and accordingly if this Constitution is adopted, Yankee adventurers and negroes will lord it, in the places of power, over the white men, women and children of the Old Dominion. We rejoice to say that our private advices from Virginia are to the effect that the infamous thing will be voted down by a clear majority.

This is Radicalism in Virginia. In North Carolina, it will be even worse,—not, possibly, in this matter of suffrage, but still in every other particular. Nothing can be more horrible and humiliating than those features in the proposed bastard Constitution for this State, which require an indiscriminate enrolment of negroes with white men in the militia, and the compulsory mingling of the children of the poorer class of our white people, in the public schools, with negroes,—and that, too, probably, under NEGRO TEACHERS!

Is there a decent white man in North Carolina, who will sanction this state of things? If there is one, of any sort, he ought to be black washed and allowed to seek his level according to his instincts!

HON. WILLIAM H. BATTLE.

We are pleased to publish, below, the letter of acceptance of this admirable Judge and pure minded Christian gentleman, in reply to the communication of the Secretary of the Executive Committee, informing him of his nomination for the seat on the Supreme Court bench, which he now adorns:

CHAPEL HILL, March 5th, 1868.

SIR:—Your letter, informing me that I had been unanimously nominated by the State Executive Committee of the Conservative party, for a seat on the bench of the Supreme Court, has just been received.

I accept the nomination, and, if elected, shall, in the future, as I have done in the past, endeavor to discharge the duties of the high office for which I am proposed, honestly, faithfully and impartially, according to the best of my abilities.

With my thanks to the Executive Committee for the honor which they have conferred upon me, and to you for the kind terms in which you have communicated their wishes,

I am very truly your's,

To WILL. H. BATTLE.

RICHARD C. BADGER, Esq.,
Sec. State Ex. Com.

ENROLLING COMMITTEES! Complete your lists forthwith. Do not delay, and do not fail to take down, also, the names of all, who are ashamed of their color!

CAPT. M. F. MAURY will shortly assume the duties of Professor of Marine Science in the Virginia Military and Naval Institute.

DOWN WITH THE NEW CONSTITUTION.

This must be the battle cry of the white men of the State. Every Conservative in North Carolina desires the "reconstruction" or restoration of our State and people, in harmony and concord with the Union and the people of all sections. They deny palpably that they are opposed to the government of the United States. They are opposed utterly to the aims and purposes of the Radicals to revolutionize and destroy the government, but they are, and ever have been, friends and advocates of the fundamental principles of government set forth in the Constitution. Hence they will condemn the new Constitution.

North Carolina Conservatives are true Americans—lovers of liberty, devoted to the rule of the white man in America and in North Carolina; but they are true friends of all men.

The new Constitution, which will be proposed to the people by the Radical Convention, is subversive of these great principles—basely yields the right of the governing people of North Carolina to frame a Constitution for themselves—acquiesces in the claim of Congress to force a Constitution upon us. That Constitution will assert the natural equality of rights of all men, without regard to the mental or moral character of men. It proposes to elevate no one, but to sink the white race to the level of the black race—it ignores the right of property to protection—abolishes the necessary distinctions between virtue and vice and offers no incentive to the former. It places the guardianship of society equally in the hands of the ignorant and the vicious, against the intelligent and the virtuous, by antagonizing their interests.

The new Constitution is not built upon the republican foundations of our old organic law or the Constitution of the United States, but upon the vicious and fanatical principles of a political party, to secure the dominance of that party and the overthrow of the old government, without the consent of a majority of the white people of the State. It puts up the negro as a political element for the subjugation of the white race to the dominant party. It makes a negro the peer of a white man in the jury box, in the offices of honor and trust, in the militia of the State and in her public schools. It proposes relief to the people, which is no relief. It helps the few, to the damage of the many.

In the name of Constitutional Liberty, and of Washington, and Adams, and Jefferson, and Madison and Clay, and Jackson and Webster, we protest against the revolutionary designs and destructive purposes of the Radical party in Congress. In the name of Caswell, and Davie and Iredell, of Macon, of Gaston, of Badger, of Daniel, of Morehead and of Dudley, we protest against the forcing upon North Carolina a Constitution so repugnant to the white race and so ruinous and destructive to her future peace and prosperity!

"I have fought with powers before the throne, and behind the throne." (Sic P)—It is certainly so printed in the X. P. G's published speech, delivered in Tucker Hall. What did the man mean? The darkies gazed in wonder. The miscellanies, some of whom had heard of thrones, principalities and powers, from the pulpit, thought he meant that he had made war on the Clergy, and therein showed himself very valiant.—A few, familiar with dramatic doings, and calling to mind that they were then watching a farce on the boards of the Theatre, conjectured that the actor, in his hurry, forgot his role, and that he intended to say that he had fought before the scenes and behind the scenes, thereby intimating that he had performed many parts in politics; that he had a facility at changing his coat to suit his audience, and an alacrity of adapting his language and costume to any set of patrons who would pay the most liberally.—But all this is involved in so much obscurity that we pass on to his next horrible fights.

"I fought Buchanan!" Aye, but it was not much of a fight, after all. You quarrelled a little because he was not sufficiently energetic in protecting the rights of the South; but never—not once in his whole administration—for leaning to either the theory or practice of your favorite remedy, secession. You supported, for a rarity, his whole administration, with the exception of these small, and almost inaudible, murmurings.

"I fought Ellis." Yes, you fought over the nomination at Charlotte—both Democrats, then, and both professing the same creed. You never fought Ellis because he went for secession and disunion, but only complained because he did not advance the old Union men enough by appointing them to high military offices in the Confederate service; and you urged that they would be more efficient in conducting the war, and in achieving a separate independence. You wanted the highest talent and the greatest energy in the army. And these, you maintained, were possessed by the old Union party, to which you had lately attached yourself, on failing to secure the Democratic nomination.

"I fought Clark!" Yes, in the very same way, and for the very same reasons, that you quarreled with Gov. Ellis, and for no other. You wanted the war carried on more vigorously.

"I fought Vance!" Yes; but that deserves a separate article.

WE HAVE NEVER looked in upon the mongrel crowd in the Capitol. If they were to disgrace the Capitol with their presence for as many years as the children of Israel were journeying in the Wilderness, we should still stay away. Those few white men, however, who have gone, at different times, have different impressions. Some, happening to go when the Yankee element was principally loquacious, thought, from the nasal twang, that they might be in a Puritan Conventicle; others, when the negro element was garrulous, that they might be at a corn-shucking; and still others, when the scalawags were rampant, that the whole thing was only a cross roads Radical meeting.

THE ARTICLE ON EDUCATION.

There was an error in our report of Friday's proceedings on this article. The subjoined is the correct version: When the following section was reached:

SEC. 18. The General Assembly is hereby empowered to enact that every child of sufficient mental and physical ability shall attend the Public Schools during the period between the ages of six (6) and eighteen (18) years, for a term of not less than sixteen months, unless educated by other means.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, moved to amend, by adding at its close: "Provided, there shall be separate and distinct schools and colleges for the WHITE AND COLORED RACES."

Mr. Graham enforced his amendment with his usual ability, and said that it was offered in perfect sincerity. The yeas and nays were refused him, and his amendment was VOTED DOWN!

This short report of what actually transpired is the text for our County Canvassers. Let them take it up and ring the changes upon it from the mountains to the seaboard. In the face of this record, no man can successfully deny the purpose of the negro-Radicals to degrade the white children of the State, in their anxiety to propitiate the NEGRO VOTE!

"The end is worth more than all the means." We shall certainly triumph.—THE WICKED AND CRUEL PEOPLE WHO WOULD CONVERT FOUR MILLIONS OF HAPPY LABORERS INTO SAVAGES, BY BESTOWING ON THEM PRIVILEGES WHICH PROVIDENCE NEVER INTENDED THEM TO POSSESS, and who would divide our property among themselves and reduce us to slavery, will be foiled and driven back. The God of battles, who rules on the earth, as in the armies of Heaven, will continue to fight for us, if we are only true to ourselves. Courage, then, all! Let us be united, and patient, and firm, and loyal, and self sacrificing in every emergency. The "ray of light" will increase until it discloses its source, the sun of victory. Our independence once achieved, North Carolina will be one of the most prosperous States in the world. We shall enjoy ourselves, and leave to our children not only liberty, but all the blessings which toleration in religion, and the industrial pursuits in field and workshop, education, and the arts and sciences, and peaceful commerce with other nations, can bestow upon us."—Holden, July 1, 1862.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORIES.

The New York World speaks encouragingly of the Democratic triumphs, on the 3rd inst. It says:

"It thunders all around the sky. The town elections held yesterday in New Hampshire, Maine, and New York all tell one story—overwhelming Democratic gains as compared with last fall, when the Radicals were everywhere beaten. With these figures before us, it is safe to say that were a Presidential election to be held next week, the Democrats would carry every State in the Union, except, perhaps, Massachusetts and Iowa."

The New Hampshire State Democratic Committee announces the following to be the result of the canvass in that State: For Sinclar, democratic candidate for Governor, 36,183; for Harimen, radical, 33,309; doubtful 2,506. The Democrats of New Hampshire are much elated at the prospect of success.

IT IS SAID that Daddy Cowles, after having been in the Chair for nearly eight weeks, and after having received, for his valuable services, at least $700, has so far progressed as to learn two things: One is to allow the utmost latitude to the Radical and nigger delegates, and the other is to allow none to Conservative gentlemen on the floor. If he goes on improving, his children may own him after awhile. But $700 for Cowles! The investment would have been dear at a seventieth part of the money.

For the Sentinel.

HENDERSON ADAMS, FOR PUBLIC AUDITOR.

Messrs. Pell and Gales:—As this gentleman has been brought before the public, by the Radicals, for the important and responsible office of Auditor, it is well that the people should know who he is—what he has been and what he is now. Passing through Lexington, the town in which he resides, a few days ago, I learned the following facts, from at least a dozen of the most respectable citizens of the town:

During the first few years of the war he was a rampant war man; was very active in trying to get men to volunteer. C. F. Lowe, Esq., has a subscription list now, among his papers, on which is Mr. Adams' name, with $50 opposite, marked paid.—This subscription paper was gotten up to equip a company of soldiers for the fight. Yet, he says, he was always for the Union, and can take the iron clad with a clear conscience. When the Federal troops came to Lexington, they found him down on the war, and, especially, Gov. Vance. Gen. Estis was appointed tax collector for a District down East and called on Mr. Adams to sign his bond—he put his name to it, after taking the required oath, in which he swore that he was worth twenty thousand dollars. A few weeks, thereafter, he went before the same Magistrate to give in his property for tax; here he only gave in a few hundred dollars and swore it was all he was worth. He has been treasurer for the Wardens of the poor in this country for some time, and since the war they require him to give a bond with security—and it is not known that he has given one since the war—he is now in "limbo," trying to give a bond, and has been for months. He owns nothing in his own name. He is a man of less than ordinary brains—except to his own estimation. He once boasted that he carried Davidson county in his breeches pocket, but since the surrender he has not been able to muster a corporal's guard for anything in this county. The radicals here have positively refused to run him for any office. His wrath rests upon the "so-called," for not going republican to the handle. The above is simply an outline, without coloring or exaggeration, of the radical nominee for Auditor; as any of your readers can learn from the best authority, in the county in which he lives.

I would like to give you a sketch of his personal appearance, but have neither time nor inclination to go into that now.

TRAVELLER.

Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Davis arrived in this city yesterday morning, and secured rooms at the St. Charles, where they have been visited by many of their friends and acquaintances.—New Orleans Times.

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

NIGHT SESSION.

FRIDAY, March 6, 1868.

According to adjournment, the Convention was called to order at 7½ o'clock.

The report of the Committee on Homestead was taken up and read the third time.

In the first section, Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, moved to add to the 5th line the words, "contracted after the adoption of the Constitution."

Mr. Rich said that this subject had been debated so thoroughly, that he deemed further discussion unnecessary. He hoped the amendment would be voted down.

Mr. Trogden supported the amendment. He was opposed to retroactive homesteads, as he thought them to be nothing more nor less than repudiation.

Mr. Hodnett said that if this amendment was voted down and the Convention passed a retroactive homestead, the fate of the public debt was sealed. You educate the people to repudiation. He had all his life opposed repudiation and opposed it now most strenuously, but if you pass a measure impairing private debts, I will then, and so will the people of my section, demand the repudiation of the State debt.

Mr. Forkner spoke in opposition to the retrospective plan.

The question recurred upon Mr. Jones' amendment. The yeas and nays being called, the vote stood: Yeas 34, nays 65.

Mr. Tourgee moved to amend by inserting the words "and is hereby," before the word "exempted." Carried.

On the adoption of the section, as amended, the yeas and nays were called and resulted in yeas 76, nays 16.

Section 2 was read, when Mr. French, of Bladen, moved to amend by striking out the word "exempt" in 8th line and insert the words "and is hereby exempted."—Carried.

Mr. Dowd moved to insert in the 3rd and 8th lines $2,000, instead of $1,000.

On motion of Mr. Graham, of Orange, the yeas and nays were called upon this amendment and the vote stood, yeas 20, nays 67.

Hood, (negro,) called the previous question. The call was sustained, and the question recurred upon the adoption of section 2d, as amended, which was put to a vote and carried.

Section 3 was amended and adopted.

Sections 4, 5, 6 and 7 were adopted without debate.

Mr. Tourgee moved to reconsider the vote on section 6. Carried.

Mr. Tourgee moved to amend, by striking out, in the 4th and 5th lines, the words, "after the adoption of this Constitution."—Carried.

The section, as amended, was then adopted.

The article, as a whole, was put on its final passage. The yeas and nays, being called, resulted in a vote of yeas 63, nays 18.

On motion, the Convention then adjourned.

MORNING SESSION.

SATURDAY, March 7, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Lennox, of the Convention.

Mr. Ashley wished to hear from the Committee, appointed in relation to his affair with Mr. Durham.

Mr. Daniel, the Chairman, replied that the Committee had thought best to let the matter drop.

The Chairman was directed to make his report in writing.

RESOLUTIONS, ORDINANCES, &C.

By Mr. Renfrow: A resolution in regard to a Mechanic's Lien law; which was referred without reading.

By Mr. Turner: A resolution in favor of a reduction of the tax on spirits of turpentine. Referred.

By Mr. Tourgee: A resolution empowering the Committee on Arrangement and Revision to procure parchment for the purpose of having the Constitution presented for the signature of the delegates. The rules were suspended and the resolution adopted.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Mr. Ashley called up the report of the Committee on Printing, in favor of proceeding at once to elect a Printer.

The report was adopted.

Mr. Andrews nominated W. W. Holden & Son for the position.

Mr. Rodman offered a resolution, to dispense with an election and to authorize the Committee on Printing to contract for the work.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, raised a point of order, that the resolution to go into the election of Printer had been adopted.

The Chair sustained the point and the resolution was withdrawn.

Mr. Ashley moved to elect by acclamation.

Mr. Durham offered the names of Messrs. Hearne & Dunham.

Mr. Tourgee moved to lay Mr. Durham's nomination on the table.

He withdrew the motion, after being remonstrated with, and a viva voce ballot being taken resulted in the election of Holden & Son.

On motion of Mr. Tourgee, the Report of the Committee on Counties, Towns, &c., was taken up.

When section 14 was reached, (prohibiting the payment of any debt contracted by Counties, &c., in aid of the rebellion,) Mr. Baker moved to add, at the close of the section: "Provided, that debts contracted for benevolent purposes shall not be considered as coming within the purview of this section."

Mr. Baker called for the yeas and nays. They were refused and the amendment was voted down.

The section, as it stood, was then adopted.

The article, as a whole, was put on its passage.

The yeas and nays being called, resulted in its adoption by a strict party vote of yeas 86, nays 14.

On motion of Mr. Abbott, the report of the Committee on Finance was taken up.

Sections 1, 2 and 3 were read and adopted without debate.

Mr. Abbott then moved the adoption of his substitute for the 4th and 5th sections.

Mr. Cowles objected to it.

A long debate ensued, participated in by various delegates.

The question finally recurred upon the substitute.

On its passage the yeas and nays being called; the vote stood, yeas 62, nays 30:

The following is the amendment, as adopted, viz:

SECTION 4. Until the bonds of the State shall be at par, the General Assembly shall have no power to contract any new debt or pecuniary obligation in behalf of the State, except to supply a casual deficit, or for suppressing invasion or insurrection, unless it shall in the same bill levy a special tax to pay the interest annually.

And the General Assembly shall have no power to give or lend the credit of the State in aid of any person, association or corporation, except to aid in the completion of such railroads and other works of internal improvement as may be unfinished at the adoption of the Constitution, and in which the State has a direct or pecuniary interest, unless the subject be submitted to a direct vote of the people of the State, and be approved by a majority of those who shall vote thereon.

Sections 6, 7 and 8 were next adopted.

The yeas and nays being called on the passage of the entire article, resulted in a vote of yeas 77, nays 20.

By consent, Hood, (negro,) introduced a report from the Committee on Disabilities.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, moved that the names of persons in that report recommended for the removal of their disabilities, be put to the people for ratification, at the same time when the Constitution is voted upon.

The Chair decided that this motion was out of order, as the report was only accepted and not to be acted upon now.

Mr. French, of Bladen, introduced an ordinance, making it a punishable offence for any one to intimidate, by threats or otherwise, persons to keep them from the polls.

The rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. French, but, after some debate, it was decided to have the ordinance printed, before taking further action in the matter.

Mr. Heaton, from the Committee on Revision, reported an article on Amendments to the Constitution. Ordered to be printed.

On motion, the House adjourned until 7½ P. M.

BARNUM'S MUSEUM.—The destruction, by fire, of Barnum's Museum in New York, on the night of the 3rd inst., caused an estimated lost of $500,000.

"Among the animals known to have been burned to death, were four baby lions, two large lions, four leopards, a pair of Bengal tigers (valued at $25,000,) one panther, two hyenas, two black bears, one white or polar bear, one ibex, a pair of Canada lynxes, a splendid Brazilian tiger, four African porcupines, four Australian kangaroos, two white peacocks, three sea leopards, the learned seal (saved from the former fire,) four boa constrictors (each twenty feet long,) one gnu or horned horse, one spotted axis dear, a fine civet cat, and many other, valuable animals; also, the entire collection of monkeys, birds, parrots, and smaller animals of all descriptions.

The howling, roaring and screams of the animals, are said to have been terrific.

IMPEACHMENTS ALL THE FASHION.—The country is likely to have plenty of impeachment on its hands. Besides the approaching trial at Washington, and the threatening impeachment of the New York Commissioner, it is reported that there is a movement in the Massachusets Legislature for the impeachment of Gov. Bullock for his veto of the bill to abolish the State constabulary. In West Virginia the Legislature has taken measures to impeach Judge Hindman of that State, charged with admitting attorneys from the Southern States to practice law without taking the "iron-clad" test oath. The New York board of aldermen have before them a resolution urging the Legislature to impeach Governor Fenton for "high crimes and misdemeanors," for not enforcing a law relative to New York city affairs, passed by the Legislature of that State.

SERGEANT BATES AND THE AMERICAN FLAG.—It is reported that an emissary of the Radicals has gone South for the purpose of picking a chance to shoot Sergeant Bates, credit. This is one of the most nefarious of all the acts of the Radical party. The perambulating Sergeant is urged to be on his guard.—Norfolk Day Book.

PROPOSED MASS MEETING IN RALEIGH.

A correspondent of the Newbern Journal of Commerce proposes a grand State mass meeting, in this city, some time during the pending canvass. He advises that the white people shall come up, from all sections of the State, with banners and devices, and that the ablest speakers of the State be invited to be present and address the people.

We heartily approve the suggestion.—Let the Executive Committee have a meeting and announce the time and place for a Grand Mass Meeting, and then let the Press of the State urge the attendance of the people.

HON. THOS. S. ASHE.—We learn that this distinguished gentleman, one of the Canvassers for the State at large, condescended to reply, last week, at Albemarle, Stanly Co., to "Windy Billy," junior, and made one of the most powerful and splendid efforts ever heard in that section of the State. Our informant writes that "many such efforts will certainly secure us victory."

WE LEARN that, at the recent meeting at Lenoir, in Caldwell County, the bare and simple mention of Holden's name was sufficient to bring down a perfect torrent of hisses. And this is the man, thus despised and execrated by all white men, who is seeking to be Governor of North Carolina by negro votes!

NORTHAMPTON.—There was a glorious Conservative meeting in this County, on Monday last. The gallant Gen. Ransom presided. Gen. Ransom, W. W. Peebles and Col. Spruill addressed the people. The utmost enthusiasm prevailed.

ANSON.—The Conservatives of this county will hold a mass meeting in Wadesboro', to-morrow, for the purpose of organization and for ratifying the nominations made by the State Executive Committee.

NOTICE EXTRAORDINARY.—Fourteen field hands in this City, who have been engaged, recently, in making a Constitoosh'un for the white people of North Carolina, will soon be out of employment. Persons desiring to engage "servitors" (Pedagogue-Pitgrim-Cod-fish Ashley) for the approaching crop, will please address Caffee Mayo, care of Jeemes H. Harris, Raleigh.—The last is an excellent Cropper.

"WE TRIED TO SAVE SLAVERY, but the secessionists wouldn't let us."—Holden, 1865.

"CONSPICUOUS UNION LANDMARKS."

"6. Unqualified opposition to what is known as negro suffrage."—Holden, 1865.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK.—The following is a list of the North Carolina graduates at the recent Commencement of the Medical Department of the University of New York, viz: W. M. Abernethy, D. R. Ambrose, W. J. H. Bellamy, Edward Clark, Thomas W. Harris, A. G. Jones, Wm. A. Lash, Alex. Montague, Thos. J. Moore, John W. Sanders, K. R. Taylor, and T. B. Twitty. Drs. Ambrose, Bellamy and Moore were awarded certificates of honor. Dr. Moore obtained what is called the Budd prize, and Dr. Bellamy the Roosa prize.

COUNTY CANVASSERS!—Make your appointments at once, and leave no corner of a county unvisited!

THE NEGROES, with three or four so-called white men, held a secret-sation meeting at the Court-House, on Saturday night.—We learn that a Conservative colored man, who was present, was treated with great indignity. Booker Hutchings, (negro,) backed out, and Jim Harris, (nigger,) was nominated for the Legislature. So Jim pocketed the $1,000 for not running for Congress and runs Booker off, besides!

"EUREKA."—We are indebted to our friends, Messrs. R. F. Morris & Son, Durham's, for two packages of their "Eureka," or "Spanish Flavored Durham Smoking Tobacco." It is the finest article we have ever seen, and has given the enterprising manufacturers a reputation all over the world, we may say. They will please receive our thanks and the public may safely accept our endorsement.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—N. C. Land Agency: D. W. Courts, Esq., Reidsville, N. C.

Steam Saw Mill for sale or rent: Apply to W. H. Jones & Co.

Very large Mountain Irish Potatoes: W. H. Jones & Co.

Flour, Rice Herrings, Rye Whiskey, Bacon and Lard: Douglas Bell, Fayetteville Street.

On dit, that Gen. Dockery says "the Yankees want to fill five of the Congressional seats from this State, and one Senator's place, and that he don't like it, but he will have to vote for Holden." We expect the General will go the "whole hog" after all.

Modest Yankees! men who could not be elected to a constable's place at home, or who, bearing the title of Reverend, would not be allowed to preach where they are known, "who have left their country (homes) for their country's good," wanting to go to Congress. Isn't it ridiculous!—Wadesboro Argus.

THE GREAT REACTION.

WASHINGTON, March 7, M.

The Northern Democratic papers are flaming with display lines, announcing gains and victories in the municipal elections. The Republican papers are denouncing the Associated Press reporters as partizans. Close reading here shows unmistakably that the Democrats have gained massively, and the gains are so wide-spread as to preclude the idea that local issues have controlled the results to any great extent, or that the agents of the Press Association have failed to forward truthful reports.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, March 7, P. M.

SENATE.—Sumner presented a petition from certain citizens of North Carolina, asking the removal of John Pool's political disabilities. Referred to the Judiciary.

There are Tenure-of-office complications connected with the Idaho Governorship, which were discussed and finally laid on the table.

Pension appropriations were discussed at great length. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—The session was devoted entirely to debate.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 7, P M.

This evening's Star says: "Gen. Lorenzo Thomas will hereafter attend the Cabinet meetings as Secretary of War, ad interim, and business will be transacted through him by the President."

Summons was not served on the President today.

He will answer by the Attorney-General on Friday, and demand a reasonable time for preparation.

The new Georgia case against Meade comes up next Friday.

The decision in the McCardle case is expected two weeks from Monday.

The Democrats here seem confident of success in New Hampshire.

On Tuesday Senator Vickers will arrive. His credentials will be presented on Monday. His admission is certain.

The Senate considered the nomination of S. S. Cox, Minister to Austria, on yesterday, but failed to confirm him.

The Tribune originates a curious point, regarding negro Representatives and Senators,—their admission involving the question when they became citizens; the Constitution requiring seven and nine years citizenship as a qualification.

VIRGINIA CONVENTION.

RICHMOND, March 7, P. M.

The case of Williams, a Conservative member, who refused to vote on yesterday, was taken up, and, during its consideration, Liggatt, a Conservative member from Rockingham, refused to vote on the ground of contempt and disgust for the proposition, and afterwards added (very properly—Sentinel): "I have a contempt for the whole establishment."

He was expelled in about fifteen minutes; ayes 54, nays 16.

The case of Williams, who refused on conscientious grounds, was referred to a committee.

A Republican moved to reconsider the vote by which the disfranchising clause was adopted on yesterday.

Two colored members opposed it, saying they had heard that a telegram had been received, to-day from Washington, that the vote must be reconsidered. The motion was the result.

The whole question was postponed till next Thursday.

Gen. Schofield has appointed several magistrates to fill the vacancies recently created. The appointees are old citizens.

MARKETS.

SENTINEL FOR CONVENTION.

Our friends who subscribed for the Sentinel, during the Convention, are admonished that that body proposes to adjourn in a few days. Those who desire to continue it longer, will please renew at once.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

KINSTON, N. C., March 6th. 1868.

MESSRS. PELL AND GALES:—I send you, for publication, a rich specimen of the literary attainments of one of the delegates from this County to the late Radical nominating Convention, which met in your city:

KINSTON N C
A. Sp. Mar. the 3, 1868.

A Spatch Will Bee delivered, on Sadday the Six EiGhtteen Sixt EiGht By the A merication herons At the Courte house and I hope that All the troue soldiers of the unon Will Atten on Sadday March the 61868

Mr W R

This is, I think, intended as a notice to the unsophisticated, of a Radical meeting in this place, on Saturday, the 7th. inst.

The name of the "man and brother," whose title and initials are to be found at the bottom of the advertisement, is Warwick Rue, who was once a quiet, orderly mechanic, but has lately been changed into a seductive bible-banger and general whipper-in for the U. H. O. A. and has become so much elevated by his trip, as a self appointed delegate, to the late Convention of scalawags, that he has been tempted to make this display of his "book larning," in order to recommend himself for office at their hands.

If there is any honest man within the ranks of the Radical party, he must not only blush with shame, when he is informed that the author of the afore-mentioned advertisement is a prominent aspirant for office, under the negro Radical so-called Constitution, but will be bound in conscience to withdraw from and denounce the party, which has sworn "to rule—but to ruin."

The Conservatives are waking up in earnest. A large Mass Meeting is to be held to-morrow, and nominations will be made for county officers.

Every white man is on the alert, and they will be heard from on the day of election.

I have taken steps to extend the circulation of your most excellent paper, and hope, in a few days, to send you a club for the campaign, from each district in the county.

With a strong, bright hope of success in the cause for which we are struggling,

Yours, &c.

WHAT WILL SUSAN SAY?

Two suitors came for Susan's hand,
Appealing to her sire,
Spoke of their loves and breadth of land,
Before a hickory fire;
The old man heard them both and well,
In his old-fashioned way,
And looking where the ashes fell,
Thought "What would Susan say?"

The one he told of large estate,
Of fields and acres wide,
And Susan was the bright-eyed mate
He would claim for his bride.
The old man eyed this suppliant, vain
With gems of brightest ray,
And looking in the fire again,
Thought "What will Susan say?"

His sinews showed no signs of toil
Nor of the wealth acquired,
No proof that from the seeming soil,
Or labor else attired;
"Wealth might take wings, and doing so,
Might speedy fly away."
And the old man gazing in the glow,
Thought "What will Susan say?"

The other had but his good heart,
The stout arms at his side,
And setting all things else apart,
Claimed Susan for his bride;
The old man feared that these might tire,
Life was a life long way,
And looking in the hickory fire,
Thought "What will Susan say?"

Yet there was work for all to do,
And more homes yet must grow,
And men should their own fortunes hew,
While struggling here below;
He'd built the roof above his head,
'Twas many a year away,
Thought of the dear wife long since dead,
And—"What would Susan say?"

The old man rubbed his shriveled hands,
And conned the matter o'er,
The suitor with his spacious lands—
The other poor—no more;
He dreamed the love of years aback,
Long are his locks were gray;
Traced in the fire his weary track,
And—"What would Susan say?"

So Susan came and stood beside
This sire of many years;
She was his care, and love, and pride,
For her his hopes and fears;
And by the hearth upon whose stone
Her life-glow bright and gay,
He took her hand, and in low tone,
Asked—"What does Susan say?"

And Susan then, amid them all,
Her suitors and her sire,
There made her choice without recall,
As they gazed in the fire;
'Twas for the one whose highest aim
Was but to work his way,
And the answer with a welcome came,
To "What does Susan say?"

A PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a Chairman and thirty members,—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh, and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The Committee shall have power to maintain its organization, by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registration, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organizations, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and, when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

Resolved, That the President of the Convention appoint five or more persons, in each County, to make a thorough canvass of the same, and disseminate proper political information.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

The Conservative people of North Carolina having by their delegates, assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th. of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments are equal and co-ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people of the Reconstruction Acts and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal affairs.

3. Resolved That it is the opinion of this Convention, that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically, and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper means within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudicies against that race; that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder, in the last resort, of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact, as established by law in the earlier and better days of the Republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates, for the State at large, to represent the Conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the Conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, which has been appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient, to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered; and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said offices.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, }
Seaton Gales, } Editors.

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military in time of peace;

The equality of the three co ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year	$8 00
" " six months	4 00
" " three months	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year	4 00
" " six months	2 00
" " three months	1 00
Weekly " for one year	2 00
" " six months	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.
